“ Laura is now at peace. I loved her so much; she had a wonderful sense of humor and loved family, friends and Little Bit (her dog). She was fiesty like our Mom. Laura had difficult times but never complained about her lot in life. I was fortunate to talk with her the day before she died and we were able to say our last "I love you". I couldn't make your funeral Laura but I'll be at your graveside in the spring in order to say our final good-bye.
Your loving sister, Linda

“ May Aunt Laura finally be at peace. I remember going to Millers Cafeteria and seeing my first wrestling match with Grandma and Aunt Laura. It scared me to death but they loved it. There favorite wrestler was Dick the Bruiser. We will Miss Her.

“ I have know Laura since the late 60's. From the days of the old skating rink and throughout the years. I knew her to be a quiet and unassuming person and do not ever recall her saying bad things about anyone. Always quick with a hello and a genuine smile.. She will be missed.....
