“ Memories of my big brother are so many. I was so blessed to have him for a brother.

He always listened to me, and gave good advice over our years of growing up, even as late as last month. I know he loved me, as I loved and respected him. During my darkest time he was there for me.

The love Lee and Mary shared was truly obvious to all who knew them.

Love and will always miss him.

“ Not only was Lee my big brother, he was my mentor, best friend, and protector. He was always there for me when I needed him for anything. We shared cars and lots of laughs. We could always make me laugh. My biggest memory is Lee and I palling around Rushville growing up. Last week my wife and I went to visit him the last thing he said, as always, was "I Love You!"

There is a lot more I could say, but tears keep me from going on.

Again, as always, "I Love You Big Brother."

Your little brother,

Kenney

“ Lee:
You will be missed by many friends that have known for many years. Me for one really appreciate knowing you for many years.
We had lots of fun and enjoyed talking to gather drinking coffee at Hardie's. I hope that you are in a better place and not suffering any more.
Mary, you will miss him.
