“ Lots of wonderful memories our family shared together growing up. The Hornaday family moved in across the street from us. I remember when I saw her for the first time, I asked my mom if she was a movie star because she was so beautiful. Linda laughed when I told her this story several years ago. I always enjoyed our conversations whenever I would see her. I had a missed call from her a couple of weeks when I was driving. So happy that I pulled over and called her back. RIP Linda 🥹
