“ We are saddened by Lisa's passing. Her kind spirit and effervescent personality will be missed by all that were blessed to know her. Thankfully, we can find solace in scripture that reminds us of what those who believe and accept Christ as their Lord and Savior can expect when they leave their earthly vessels.

2 Corinthians Chapter 5

6 Therefore we are always confident, knowing that, whilst we are at home in the body, we are absent from the Lord: 7 (For we walk by faith, not by sight:) 8 We are confident, I say, and willing rather to be absent from the body, and to be present with the Lord. 9 Wherefore we labour, that, whether present or absent, we may be accepted of him.

Our prayers are with Scott and the family during their time of grief. Your faith will see you through this.

“ Lisa you were the best aunt any niece could ever ask for. You wanted nothing but the best for us. I had so many great times growing up with you across the street from us. From falling from the hole in our yard to coming across the road to find out what the note on our door said. I love you Lisa, we all do and your spirit with always be with us.

“ I am so saddened by your loss. So quickly life goes past. I enjoyed working with and being around her. My most heartfelt thoughts to the family. Allow me to share this with you:

*Shed not for her the bitter tear nor give the heart to vain regret.
Tis but the casket that lies here
the gem that filled it, sparkles yet....*

May our Lord give you comfort and ease your pain.
