“ I can't begin to say how loretta touch my life in so many ways. When i start with her at shell many years ago i never knew how much one person could make such a difference in my life. She tought me how to belive in people and how to become a leader. She lead life by example and tpuched so many peoples life was there never a day she didnt have a smile on her face and thats one of the biggest things i learned from her always smile no matter how much u dont want to. She will always be an amazing women and peopme who knew her was very blessed. Send prayers to her family on this hard time.

“ I can't begin to say how deeply Loretta affected my life. She taught me many things. But most importantly. She led by example. Especially on taking time to help people. No matter what was going on. She always made time for anyone that needed her. I saw random acts of kindness extended to complete strangers. She would always say that she was far from perfect. But in my eyes. No one comes closer.
