“ *I never met Lucia but she wrote me a very nice letter concerning our family relation.
She had two daughters before leaving for Usa.
One of them is Elvira Ruck in Mainz. I met her several times, she is my cousin.
My Mother Ingeborg Heis was her younger sister.*

“ I remember Mrs. Herbert bringing lunch to her grandchildren at St. Mary School, when I taught there. She would often have a linen napkin in the lunchbox and a wonderful assortment of authentic German foods. Mrs. Herbert was a holy lady and she prayed openly with us in her native tongue. She was kind and gentle.
