“ Lynette and I became friends when she lived on East11th St. We were less than ten years old. We shared a long friendship even though as we grew older we spent less time together. I stood with her at her first wedding, and our paths crossed many times over the years. Merrilyn was a good friend to my Mother, Adah, and became a good friend to me as well. So many years ... So many memories. I will always remember my sweet childhood friend. Rest easy till I get there...God bless the family as they tell Lynette stories and smile!

“ To Sonny, Lynette's children, grands and greats as well as Doug and the girls, I am so sorry for your loss. You are in our thoughts and prayers. I haven't seen Lynette in a while, so I must say I was surprised to hear of her passing. I so adored Marilyn and staying at the Lower household so many years ago. I will leave you with this poem..

A gentle wind blew cross the land, reaching out to take a hand, for on the winds the Angels came, calling out a loved one's name. Left behind, are all the tears, from loving memories, of the years, of joy and love, a life well spent and now to God a loved one's sent. On Angel's wings, a heavenly flight, the journey home, towards the light. To those who weep, a life is gone, but in God's love, 'tis but the dawn. – Written By Tim Chambers
