“ To all the Amos family--

I am so sorry to read about the passing of "Grandma" Mary V. Whenever I saw her she always had a smile on her face. I am sure she is still smiling with Grandpa Bob. Just know that I want to express my sympathy to you all and take this as a hug from me to you!! :)

She was a super aunt and fill-in mother! I'll love her forever! I'm sure I drove her crazy when I spent the summers and holidays, but that's what happens when you're the "baby" of the whole family! I'm sure my mother, uncle bob, grandma & grandpa Abbott are happy to welcome her home! Love you bunches!

I am so sorry to hear of Mrs. Amos's death. Joe was in my class during first grade; Bill was a dear friend; Alice was a friend as well. Margie and Donnie were treasured friends of my parents, Vicki, and me. Even Donnie and Margie's children are friends of my sons. Thanks for the memories. May our God comfort your hearts.
