“ My Condolences to the McQueen family. Mary was a kind woman and a true soldier of Christ. I have not talked with Mary for many years. But, I can remember her like yesterday. She would come to church services at Clarksburg Holiness Church. Oftentimes, with her good friend, Ms. Nila Lowry. I witnessed many testimonies of her devotion to the Lord and profession of faith. She always had words of encouragement and offered her prayers. May she forever rest, peacefully, in the Sweet Bye and Bye
