“ I'm so sorry for your loss of your Mom. She was an amazing lady, I will never forget her. She watched my son when I went back to work. I hated leaving him, but she was an angel to him and so many others that she babysat for. She was like a loving grandma to them. Thanks for all the years to cared for everyone. Rest in peace, MARY.

“ On March 31st, 1971 a very sick baby was born at Rush Memorial Hospital. The newborn needed transported to Riley Children's Hospital in Indianapolis but the hospital was unable to secure an ambulance for transport. The Grandmother said wrap the child up and I will hold him while his father drives him to Riley. That newborn child was me and that Grandmother was this beautiful woman. I literally owe you my life Grandma and my love for you will live on forever. Rest in peace.
