

Maurice Reed Dora

May 22, 1927 - November 26, 2014

Maurice R. Dora, 87 of Fayette County passed away on November 26, 2014 after an eight month stay at Flatrock River Lodge in Rushville, IN. He was born in Connersville on May 22, 1927 to Russell L. and Gleta (Reed) Dora both deceased and grew up one mile north of Falmouth on the family farm. Maury married Patricia L. Osborn on May 31, 1953. He graduated from Raleigh High School in 1945 and enlisted in the Army February 23, 1946. He then attended Purdue University and graduated with a B. S. in Air Transportation. While at Purdue he joined the Air Force ROTC and was discharged from the USAF as a 2nd Lieutenant on May 27, 1955. Maury and Pat raised their three children in Hamilton, Ohio, South Bend, Indiana, Simsbury, Connecticut and Ann Arbor, Michigan all places where he worked selling pneumatic and hydraulic components. Maury learned to fly while at Purdue and enjoyed his two sail boats. He never knew a stranger. After his retirement he and Pat moved back to the family farm.

Besides his wife Pat, Maury is survived by a daughter, Linda (Jerry) Fudge and two sons, Michael (Denise) Dora and Bradley Dora all of Rush County, four grandchildren, Drew Dora, Lee Dora, Christina Rennekamp and Kari Rennekamp and eight great grandchildren, Olivia, Christian, Connor, Sophia, Nathan, Alexander, Elias and Natalie Dora and a sister, Marilyn (Vaughn) Johannessen of Rush County.

Services will be held at 10 AM Saturday, November 29, 2014 at Moster Mortuary, Rushville. Rev. James Orr will preside. Friends are welcome to visit at the mortuary from 4-8 PM on Friday evening. Burial will be at the convenience of the family.

Memorial contributions may be made to Our Hospice of South Central Indiana or the Rush County Community Fund.
