“ I knew her as Rin, a generous, loving, kind soul with an artist's eye to life and artist's hands to create. We hiked in some beautiful local places, and hunted fossils in the wonderful hillsides of old limestone that are unique to this region. She played piano beautifully. It was a joy to know her. In memory, with love. Laura

“ Melinda's passing leaves a hole in my heart. We became friends at IU in 1981 and were close for years. Her artistic talents were many: singing, playing guitar, painting, poetry/writing, sculpting, and many others. She did everything with depth, passion, and generosity. I'm grateful for all she taught me. And, I send heartfelt condolences to the family.

“ I have loved Melinda since we met at IU in 1981. I am so lucky to have counted her as a dear friend all these years. She is one of my favorite people and I will miss her and miss her and miss her, but mostly I will be grateful that she shared her generous, kind spirit and gentle laughter with me.

“ Monica, I am so sorry for your loss. As I remember times spent in your Glenwood home, I think of one sleepover when I woke up with a fever. Melinda cared for me, as a teenager not much older than I was. I hope she rests free.

“ Melinda, you are my sister forever and ever and ever, and those people can never erase us. The trauma was hard on our relationship, too. As I said to you in my Message when our horrible father died, “maybe someday, we can be whole again.” I pray this is your someday.

“ Melinda's other sister Monica was omitted. How hurtful for her to lose her sister and not even be acknowledged.

“ Melinda is also survived by her youngest sister, Monica. To include her “father”, but not her sister in her obituary, shame on you.
