“ Missy was one of the first people I met when I started working at the Independent Living Center of Eastern Indiana. She was always the first one to jump in and help out with whatever needed to be done. She was always cheerful and truly happy to help others, I miss her and will do my best to continue in her footsteps. ”

“ My first and favorite memory of missy would have to be when we celebrated Brandon's sons birthday at the park. It was my first time really getting to know her and Ben. It was just brandon the kids Ben missy and I. We ate a delicious cake that I believe she made and ice cream that was mostly melted because it was so hot out that day. Just seeing the joy in her eyes while playing with her grandbabies was a sight to see. Thats how I choose to remember her. We will miss her greatly. Love and prayers to everyone in the family. Your all heavy on my heart these next few days. ♡♡
