“ Where do I even begin. I am absolutely heartbroken. I had the honor of caring for Mona when she was at home for many years. We had a bond, a special bond. We talked about so many different things. the laughs I will forever treasure in my heart. Mona loved it when I would paint her nails, always wanting a soft pink color. I would visit with her quite often at Miller's Merry Manor and from time to time play bingo there with her. My last visit being Sunday afternoon, I am quite sure she knew I was there to see her. My understanding is that she traveled to Heaven shortly after I left. I will forever love you. Rest east my sweet Mona. Love Jessica
