Nancy Louise (Lemen) Walker, age 83 of Rushville, IN, passed away peacefully Thursday, January 8, 2026 surrounded by the love of her family. She was warm, delightful and full of joy. Nancy had a wonderful sense of humor and a way of making people laugh without even trying. She had the best warm giggle that could brighten anyone's day. Kind, loving and endlessly patient, she had a special gift with children and made everyone around her feel seen and cared for. Nancy was a joyful presence with all children, especially her grandchildren, nieces, nephews, students and truly any child lucky enough to cross her path.

Nancy was married for 64 years to Jesse Lowell Walker, whom she married on September 1, 1961. Jesse told her "I Love You" every single day. Together they shared a lifetime of love, laughter and cherished memories.

“ Our hearts are heavy this evening after hearing of the passing of our neighbor. 😞 Nancy & Lowell have been our neighbors and friend for many years. She was a beautiful soul inside and out! She loved everyone. Always admired her for many reasons. One of my favorites was definitely the love she had for her family. I remember when I first saw her after they moved in our neighborhood, thinking to myself, wow, such a classy lady wondering how old she was and went down and introduced myself. Lowell came out and she smiled and said, this is my husband. We just hit it off from day one. Knew they were going to be awesome neighbors. We never hung out with one another but always kept in touch and knew we were always there for each other. I told my husband, John about them. Over the years, Lowell and John had good conversations. Lowell would come over and sit on porch with John while Nancy & Linda were out having fun. I remember him saying to John, I'm always welcome to go but would just rather stay home. I just want her to go and have a good time. I liked him a lot when he said that. End of story! I was hoping John would take a lesson from Lowell. Nancy always loved the sunshine and would sit out in the sun beside the garage and greet everyone who walked by. She was so beautiful. Lowell & Nancy loved the outdoors like we did. I think her and I were the only females that mowed in our neighborhood. In fact, Lowell and I were mowing the same day at the end of season this year, I looked down and saw Nancy sitting on their front porch, knew she wasn't feeling well and shut my mower off. I went down and was able to get a hug. RIP neighbor and friend, we loved you. Heaven gained another special lady and her name is Nancy! Always here for you, Lowell 🥺🙏
