“Pauline's husband and my mother, Claire Ponsler Wykoff, were 1st cousins.

Their daughter, Paula, was a year or so behind me in school.

We moved to Rushville in 1961 when my Daddy, Rev. Leroy Wykoff became pastor of the Rushville Church of God.

At that time there were several of mothers Ponsler cousins in Rushville.

I visited Pauline at Miller's Merry Manor weekly for the past several years until the pandemic hit us.

In the last few months, I again was able to SEE her, from her opened door. Until the last 3 weeks, when they moved her from Assisted Living quarters to the regular side of the Nursing Home. They wouldn't let me see her then.

I am soooooo sorry that I didn't get to see her lately !!!!!!!

I believe she is in heaven now and is no longer suffering any kind of ailments.

May God be with ALL the family and friends at this time of bereavement.

My prayers are with you all.

Clairetta Lee Wykoff Bolyard.
