“ Raymond Howell, age 66....as children this seemed like a very long time to walk this earth. Now we realize how very young age 66 really is.

Laurel is such a small community that everyone was "family". Raymond and his family most certainly fit that description. Our lives were entermingled many ways for many years. Although our lives haven't crossed paths in recent years; I have nothing but kind and caring words to say about each one.

I am so very saddened for learn of your tremendous loss. My Mother always said "Be kind to each other because one day each other is all you will have." Those words have proven to be so very true.

Please know others do care and are thinking of you today and always.

Love

Gaylene

“ I had the great pleasure to meet his family. He will Rest In Peace knowing what a wonderful family he created. His family’s foundation came from his personality and his way of life . I have but one regret I never had a chance to meet him so I’m forced to judge him by his family and that was my great joy RIP Raymond tell we meet.
