“ Dick was one of the best. He was good to me all of my life. He had a tradition of handing out silver dollars every year when they came out with the new ones. Always got a kick out of that. I worked several projects with him and he cared about our community. Never a dull moment with that man

“ I am so sad for the Eckel family, and his sweet wife, on the loss of Dick. He was a godly man who made people he talked to feel special. Every time I saw him, he made me feel like I had his complete attention. He loved his Jesus and his family the most. Losing his son broke his heart and we had that in common. What a wonderful man, husband, father, grandfather and friend he was to everyone. He is in the arms of God now and the rest of us are envious. We'd like to be there too, but God knows the number of our days. Thank you, God, for the years that Dick Eckel was here on the earth.

Mary T. Wilkinson - July 09, 2020 at 10:50 PM

“ Dick was the first person to ever give me a loan. I was still in high school just working at Just Rite and the fact he had enough confidence in me to let me borrow money made me beyond grateful. He is also the father of someone I consider a great friend, Cheryl. Sending my sincerest condolences to the family for the loss of this great man. May God comfort them during their incredible sorrow. 🙏
