This is absolutely heartbreaking for me. I waited on Bob for years at the Corner Restaurant and had it not been for him and Dick Eckel for years I would have walked everywhere I went. He was a very kind and sweet man and I will miss him terribly. My prayers are with his wife and daughter in this very trying time. I'm so sorry for your loss.

“ Frances and Deby-so sorry to hear of Bobs passing. Jim and I had business with him when he was starting First Credit and he needed some help. Enjoyed our association with him and we all profited from it. Always enjoyed visiting with him when I came in the fabric store. He was a fun guy and I know everyone who knew him will miss him. My thoughts are with you. Love, Linda Whipple
