“ I tried to reconnect with Ross, I hadn't seen him since I was a child. I'm heartbroken I will not get the chance to know my uncle. Rest in Peace Uncle Ross.

“ Our paths crossed when Ross was a driver for Ride Rush. He greeted me with a smile when picking me up to run errands in Rushville. I treasure the lovely and interesting conversations we shared. I recall which was about cars and another concerning changing times in America. My sincere heartfelt condolences to family and friends. He will be missed and always cherished.
