“ I met Ruth through her son Charlie and his wife Lisa while they were stationed in Wyoming. When she and Lewis visited them in Wyoming, we were privileged to be able to spend some time with them. Ruth was one of those special people in whom goodness and kindness was simply apparent. I treasure the two items she embroidered for me - a family tree and a inspirational sofa cushion. My heartfelt thoughts and prayers are with all her family and close friends; I know they are many! With love from their Wyoming family,
Judy Ivester
