

Ruth D. Sharp

August 10, 1934 - June 1, 2024

Ruth Sharp, 89, of Arlington, Indiana passed away peacefully at home on June 1, 2024. She was born in Indianapolis, Indiana on August 10, 1934 to the late Samuel & Hazel (Brown) Campbell. She was a 1952 graduate of Warren Central High School. Ruth worked for Indiana Insurance Company after high school and later drove buses for local school sports teams.

On November 5, 1955 Ruth married the love of her life, Max Sharp. They shared a love so beautiful and rare, often noting that they never fought. Even after Max's passing in 2013, Ruth always kept his picture with her.

In 1974 Ruth and Max moved their family from Indianapolis to Arlington after purchasing a campground. The campground became a place their family and friends would enjoy for generations. For many years Ruth's labor of love was mowing, weed eating, decorating, and maintaining the property.

In addition to being a hard worker, Ruth enjoyed travelling, riding motorcycles, camping, painting, writing poetry, bowling, and sharing time with family and friends. In recent years, she became fond of birdwatching, crossword puzzles, and taking care of her cat, Bella.

She was loved tremendously and will live on in the hearts of those who loved her.

Ruth is survived by her daughter, Cindy Leavelle, a son, Randy (Regina) Sharp, grandchildren, Ashley (Jason) Fleener, Kassidy (David) Gordon, Zachary Sharp, Tyler (Emily) Sharp, Dakota (Kyle) Wainwright, Shyla (Thurston) Sharp, and great-grandchildren Shianne, Lillian, Brooklynn, Scarlett, Braxton, Harper, Ashlyn, Elliott, David Jr., and Finley. Ruth was preceded in death by her parents, husband, brothers Paul and John Campbell, son David Sharp, and son-in-law Ken Leavelle.

A visitation for Ruth will be held on Thursday, June 6, 2024, from 11:00AM to 1:00 PM at Moster Mortuary, 334 North Main Street, Rushville, IN 46173.

Funeral service will immediately follow.

Ruth will be laid to rest next to her beloved Max in Arlington East Hill Cemetery.

“ I will always remember how excited I would be to see my uncle Max and aunt Ruth unexpectedly pull up in our driveway on their big Harley motorcycle! I loved visiting their home at the campground, and enjoyed spending time in the lake by her house in my younger years. She could be counted on to attend the milestone events in my life like my high school graduation and wedding, and always sent cards and wrote supportive messages when she could not be there for birthdays and illnesses.

Aunt Ruth had a friendly, unpretentious, caring personality. Her mannerisms were modest and discreet, but it was obvious that she deeply loved her husband, her two brothers, and her entire family. When I took care of my dad during his last years, it was a privilege to take him to see her and to talk to her on the phone more frequently. I always enjoyed our conversations. I also appreciated her nonchalant responses to her older brother's relentless teasing and silly antics. My dad loved her a lot, as did I.

I will miss you, Aunt Ruth, but I will always cherish the memories of you in my heart.
