“ I met Sandy in the late '80s. She and her daughter accepted me and all my baggage immediately. Sandy had always been motherly, aunt-like, big sister; well kinda bossy. She always helped send me in the right direction and to always find the silver lining. This doesn't seem real. My heart is broken. The time, laughter and goofiness will be locked in my heart forever. Sandy was my family. I hope Amanda knows I will be here for her unconditionally. I hope you know how proud your Mom was of you. All our thoughts & prayers are with you all!
