“ Sandy was my Great Aunt she was a great person. She had a wonderful sense of humor and really didn't let much get to her. My first memory of her is my most telling memory of her. My mom says she said something different but I disagree, so anyways Sandy had called my mom and left her a message on the answering machine calling her an old whore (jokingly of course), I was a young lad and didn't understand I was just mad at her so that became her new name from me. Evertime I seen my Aunt Sandy she was always called the old whore I will miss her. While I didnt spend a lot of time with her I do have plenty of memories and she was one of my favorite aunts. I truly hope that everyone can continue forward knowing that she has touched many hearts and truly made a beautiful difference in her life.
