“ *As children we spent many days at the family farm - she and I both crazy about The Beatles - she loved John and I George. Her artistic talents were remarkable and she could sit down and draw a photo perfect picture of anyone anytime. As we grew older we grew away and I was always saddened by this - when her father my Uncle Lowell passed away I think this was the last time we made connections and now she has joined him, her mother, and her brother Mike or "Butch" as we all called him. I send my heartfelt sympathies to those who she leaves behind and loved her as I did. God bless you all

“ SFC Wilson will be greatly missed. Her pleasing personality and her willingness to accomplish all assigned missions was exemplary. Many of our soldiers were awarded plaques and trophies that Sandy prepared and she carried on with that mission even after her retirement from active service. I will always remember her and her quiet and persistent attitude. I am sure the Lord has prepared a room for her in His mansion. My prayers are with her and family and friends.
