“ This is really hard for me as I have several great memories!! One of my favorite... I was 17 years old .. It was a Friday night and she was going to try and get me into Borderline (a country club in Fl) I told her there is no way because I wasn't old enough .. She said you watch me .. I know people who will let you in .. Low and behold I didn't get in so we cruised around Tampa singing Patsy Cline songs without music - one of her fav's was "crazy" .. I loved when her and my mom would go out and come home at 3 or 4 in the morning drunker than snot cooking up a storm in the kitchen ... Or when it was quiet time for bed .. Kenny would yell mom .. She'd say what Kenny .. He would mumble (on purpose) to her as if he was talking and she'd say "what"... Again he'd mumble and shed say .. "What did you say".. We would all just laugh .. I could go on forever.. I loved her so so much .. With all of my heart!! She has been such a big part of my life .. i am so thankful to have shared many many years with this woman! She new me better then I knew myself ... She was one of the funniest, strongest, loving, warm hearted, direct people you would ever meet... Just as quick as she would tell you where to go .. She'd give you a hug and say how much she loved you ... I will never ever forget you and will look forward to being reunited with you and my mom again! I love you ❤️
