“ Kim, Sorry to hear of Steve's passing. Steve and I along with all the others in the neighborhood had some good times over the years growing up. I will never forget the first time meeting Steve, we had just moved into the neighborhood and around 11pm at night my Dad seen a someone with a flashlight in the backyard. He and I went out the back door and it was Steve looking for night crawlers. Dad told him next time come to the door and ask. From that day forward Steve and I were best friends. Have a lot of good memories. Rest in peace my friend. Jerry Vale

“ Kim & family, my deepest condolences. The corner of 8th & Sexton was a hot 🔥 spot largely due too Steve in the mid to late sixties. A lot of families in this area and two small grocery stores too. Probably started "hanging out" while going home from Belle Gregg Elementary a block away. I can't remember how long its been since I seen/talked to Steve, but he will always be implanted in my mind. 🙏🙏 Thank you for your service. 🇺🇸
