“ Linda, So sorry we're not there with you. Gary can't walk in the snow and I'm on oxygen all the time now afraid I will get sick again. Gary got word this morning that his younger sister is on life support and we're waiting on word from them. We want you to know we all are thinking of you. Take care and if there is anything that you can think that we might be able to help ,please let us know . Love to you all Gary and Utta

“ Stephen will be missed by so many. I for one am blessed that the Lord let me know him. He always had a hello and kind words to share each day. I know that he is walking with the Lord and I will see him again some day-for this I will take comfort in knowing as he and many family & friends gather in heaven praising the Lord for His everlasting love.

My thoughts & prayers are lifted to the throne room of God for Stephens family & friends. May God wrap His arms of love and peace around them and grant comfort to all~?~
