“ I can just imagine when Suzie arrived in Heaven! She probably had the largest Celestial Homecoming ever in Heaven, because she touched so many lives during her short lifetime. I was fortunate enough to actually spend a Christmas Eve at church with Suzie. We sang and celebrated Our Saviors Birthday together and it's a moment that both she and I knew was special. She was also all about family...She was the glue that kept all of us going. Suzie also lead by example. And as long as we follow in her footsteps and lead the life she has hoped for all of us, we will again be in her presence! When you doubt yourself just think of what Suzie would do and you can't go wrong, she was such a loving and wonderful person. Mike, Danny and Jimmy...You were her world and she rocked it! What a great wife and mother she was...We are all so blessed to have known her and loved her! It's time for Suzie to rest in peace..Well done, faithful servant!!
With all our love, Nancy and David

“ I remember the youth girls made noodles at Aunt Donna's house. They all had a good time making noodles with flour & noodles everywhere. Tricks happened as well. Great memories. Miss seeing the girls in their younger days. Suzy was always so kind. We all will miss her.💔
