“ Suzette started in January of 2004 at Wing Walkers and I started in September of the same year. I was fortunate enough to learn the ins and outs of the Bright Horizons philosophy and the minute details of making and facilitating a lesson plan from Suzette. She was strong yet witty, structured yet loving in her approach. She was so dependable, consistent, and reliable. I knew that I would see her smiling face each day. When we talked, we laughed so hard that we howled. We held nothing back. I'm sure going to miss my friend. Fly with the angels Suzette ! We all love you! Miss Barb

I arrived at Wing Walkers after Sallie Mae closed. Suzette became a wonderful friend. She loved Vera Bradley and so did I. Whenever she went to their sale, she would ask me if I wanted one and if I did I would place an order and she would bring it to me. She was also my lunch pal. After I retired she would send me an emoji to let me know she was thinking of me. Whenever I think of Blue Jets I think of Suzette. Rest in peace my friend.

“ This is such a heartbreaking and incredibly sad news! Suzette was our daughter's teacher at Wing Walkers. She was such an amazing teacher, a wonderful and a sweet friend! She will be greatly missed. I have such fond memories of Suzette, especially when she used to sit Grace on her lap to put her hair in little pony tails and all the wonderful stories we used to share at pick up time. She has made such an impact on Grace's life and our life and we will forever be thankful that we got to know her and continue the friendship the last several years!

“ Janet drove the bus for both our children and Suzette was our son Jonathon's babysitter. Her gentle nature and patience were a perfect match for our autistic son and to this day he says she was his most favorite caregiver. The friendships we've shared through the years with the Kile family hits hard now with her passing. But we know without a doubt that she is safe in the arms of Jesus and enjoying a Heavenly reunion with her wonderful father Bill. Our love, thoughts and sincere prayers and sympathy for Janet and her family at this time. God bless.
