“ Dear Janet, Robert, Mary Beth and Children,
Jane and I want to offer our heart felt sympathies on the loss of Dick. Cyndy let me know yesterday. That made it an especially sad day (the one year anniversary of dad's death and attendance at a funeral for the President of the company who hired me and promoted me at SIGECO). Since Robert and I were closer in age, we were the ones who would pal around together. But I do have fond memories as a kid of watching Dick play football at RCHS as well as our annual Christmas Eve gatherings at Grandma's house. You have our sincere sympathies.

“ He will always be Daddy Mac to me. He was one of the strongest men I've seen, yet would smile as gentle as could be. You will be missed by all. Be our angel in heaven, Daddy Mac.
