“ I was so sorry to hear of Thelma's passing. My deepest condolences for her family. She was such a nice lady. My sister, Barbara, and I got to take a cruise to the Bahamas with Thelma and her granddaughter, Laurel. While Barbara and Laurel went back to the ship to get ready for dinner, Thelma and I stayed behind on the dock, waiting to see England's Queen Elizabeth leave her ship, the Britannica, for an evening dinner. Just as the queen's vehicle got up to where we were standing, the interior light came on and Thelma and I got to see Queen Elizabeth wave to the gathered crowd. It was a thrill for both of us and worth the time spent waiting to see the queen. I will always have that memory I shared with Thelma. The Bahamas cruise was a fun experience for the four of us, one I will always remember. May you rest in peace, Dear Thelma!
