Missing my brother today so I came to visit. Although he is far away he still lies in my heart. Sorry to say since Toms passing his youngest 2 daughters have gone up to meet with him in Heaven. Tonya & Margie have their Angel wings now and singing Glory to God, our Creator. Tho my family gets smaller I need to remember we are only here for a short time, each of us having our own journey. I will keep wiping my tears as I tread and know that the Glory is in serving our Lord and we will all be rejoicing in Heaven soon. Hallelujah to our Lord and may he watch over us as we carry on. You are all in my heart.

Thank you to all who may leave a comment of condolences here. My brother was definitely his own man! You never needed to wonder what he was thinking because he was going to tell you even if you didn't want to know. He was sometimes rough and gruff and argumentative but as I grew up I realized it was just his way. Now that I'm older, I can overlook all that and know he could be caring and heartfelt when he wanted to. I love my brother and always will. I'm happy he did not need to keep suffering in this life and is in Heaven with mom, dad, his dad and all our other family and friends. My heart goes out to Becky and all Toms children, grandchildren, great grandchildren and friends. He will be sorely missed. Love you always, my brother. Fly high til we meet again.

“ My condolences to the family of Tom Henry. Tom was a cousin to my mom, Barbara Schey Coverdale. The last time I seen Tom Henry was at the funeral of my uncle Richard Schey just recently. I enjoyed talking and visiting with him. Then to find out that he lived in the same town that my daughter, Diana Marlatt, lives near and works in. Tom will be missed by his family and friends that entered his world. Now he is in his Heavenly home.
