“ Tisha was one of the sweetest, kindest people I've ever worked with. It seems like a lifetime ago our desks were next to each other at INDOT. She taught my husband cake decorating and even baked the wedding cake for our friends' wedding. We'd lost touch over the past couple years, but it's no surprise to me that she had gone into nursing. Anyone in her care no doubt knew they were in excellent hands and felt the care and heart she had for everyone and all she did. I value my time working with Tish, and am a better person for knowing her as a friend.
