

Trey D. Colvin

January 1, 2000 - August 30, 2015

Trey D. Colvin, 15, a lifelong Rushville resident passed away Sunday, August 30, 2015 in Indianapolis, IN. Trey was born in Hancock County on January 1, 2000 to Doug and Stacy (Hoopingarner) Colvin.

Trey was a sophomore at Rushville Consolidated High School. He played football, golf, baseball and basketball early in his life. Trey enjoyed the outdoors, his friends and was an easy going person. Trey was an avid hunter, enjoyed farming and had hoped to be the Rush County Sheriff in the future. Survivors include his parents, Doug and Stacy (Hoopingarner) Colvin of Rushville, 3 brothers, Taylor, Tanner and Tyden all at home, grandparents, Richard and wife Carolyn Colvin of Rushville and Jim and wife Debbie Hoopingarner of Rush County.

Services will be held at 11 AM Saturday, September 5, 2015 at Moster Mortuary, Rushville. Friends are welcome to visit from 3-8 PM Friday, September 4, 2015 at the mortuary. Burial will be in Raleigh Cemetery.

“Trey was a great cousin and a great friend. Ill always remember the times hangin around the bonfire and the jokes hed say. Trey always had a smile on his face and lit up the room with his laugh. I met him at a family reunion and after that the times we hung out no matter what he always kept a good mood. I love you man and i cant wait to see you again. I cried nonstop when i heard you left us, prayers to the family and all your other friends cuz. See you soon buddy.
