“ Vic' as we always called him, back in 1969 he baptized me in the creek at Mahoning valley church camp, after quite an extensive counseling. One of the best.

Jim, I am just now reading this...he talked to me several times about when he baptized you...it was a "let's do this now!" kind of occasion. From Jennifer, his daughter “ Amazing man! Met him a few years back at my son's football game! Talked with him and his son in law many Friday nights! The world lost a kind hearted soul. Prayers for his family.
