“ Walt was a neighborhood childhood friend, always easy going and kind hearted. The memory that comes foremost to my mind is when my brother was brought home after Walt pulled him out of of a deep area of water he had fell through the ice in. I am not surprised he impacted so many lives in his path. I am glad that I was chanced to meet you Walt- see you again in Heaven someday friend....

“ I knew Walt through his children, Anderson and Donna, whose mother, Cassidy, is my niece. He was a great dad and was surely proud of his children. I pray the family will find peace and comfort from God above during this trying time. My thoughts and prayers are with you.
