

William L "Rusty" Collyer

November 5, 1965 - October 16, 2011

William L Collyer, 45, a lifelong Rushville resident, lost his courageous battle with cancer on Sunday evening, October 16.

Bill was born November 5, 1965 in Rushville, IN to Richard and Vivian (Moore) Collyer, both deceased. He married Lisa Randall on September 9, 1995 and she survives.

Bill had worked at Intat Precision for 21 years, 13 of those were spent in the machine shop. He was known as "Rusty" to those he worked with. Bill was a 1985 graduate of Rushville Consolidated High School. He was a member of Rushville's First Baptist Church where he worked with the youth group. He enjoyed working on cars, painting and drawing & he loved his family. Bill was a veteran of the US Army.

He leaves behind wife, Lisa of Rushville, sons, Kyle and Randall both at home, brother, Mark & wife Cathy Collyer of Washington State and sisters, Adonna Bailey of Washington State and Vickie Collyer & husband Ergin Ozturk of Chicago, IL.

Rev. Jay Noll will preside.

Memorial contributions may be made to Grundy Mt. Mission School or the First Baptist Church.
