“ Wilma was such a wonderful Christian wife, mom, and grandmother and friend. Paul and I knew Wilma and Bob from their meat-packing store, where they supplied meat for Paul's parents' grocery store in Harrisburg. They had a love and friendship towards Paul's parents and family long before I met Paul. We went to college with their children and cried with them when their daughter, Carol, died. This family has been faithful to God and Wilma was a wonderful ambassador for Christ. We will always thank God for her influence in our lives.

Wilma was such a neat lady with so many memories and knowledge of history many of us don't have! It was always a pleasure to visit with her and learn new things...from her family history to Raleigh School and town activities. I am saddened to learn of her passing, but am so happy she has been able to spend so much time with her family over the years. She will be missed and I count it a blessing to have been able to spend time with her!
